The Dolomites

On this tour you will cross four spectacular valleys of the Dolomites including Val Pusteria, Val di Landro, Val Badia and Val Gardena. You will discover the unique mix of Italian, Austrian and Ladin cultures. A unique itinerary amidst breathtaking panoramas.

On this 5-day itinerary you will admire a wide variety of landscapes. Alpine meadows and forests, open terrain at high altitudes, dizzying peaks and typical Dolomite limestone walls. You will start from the charming town of Sesto / Sexten in the Val Pusteria and end up on the vast alpine pastures of Siusi, located above the Val Gardena

Along the way, you will enjoy hearty meals, representative of the incredible diversity of this region.

Location & Access

You can reach Sesto by car, train or plane via Innsbruck, Bolzano or Venice.

By road, Sesto is 2 hours from Innsbruck, 3 hours from Verona or Venice.

Dates & Program

You can choose the date that suits you between June 28 and September 12, 2021.

The stays start on Sunday at the end of the day (arrival at the hotel) and end on Saturday morning after breakfast. The typical program that we present can be adapted or modified according to your wishes.

Day 1: Arrival in Sesto

Arrival in Sesto / Sextner and check-in at your hotel. Transfer available on request.

Sesto is one of the five villages of the Val Pusteria, at the eastern end of this South Tyrolean valley. It is called “the village of the three peaks”, because it lies just below the Tre Cime di Lavaredo (3 of the most recognizable peaks of the Dolomites). This area is a paradise for rock climbers. It also offers countless mountain bike and hiking routes to its alpine lakes and idyllic rivers.

This first evening you will meet your local e-bike guide. For a first briefing and presentation of the trip.

Day 2: Sesto - Monte Elmo - Sesto loop

Pick-up of the E-bike and briefing on the different settings. The day that begins with the climb to Monte Elmo / Helm from where can admire views of the peaks of the Meridiana di Sesto or the Sesto sundial. The descent from Monte Elmo through fields and alpine pastures to the Passo Monte Croce del Comelico / Kreuzbergpass and then back to Sesto

 Ascent D+ : 1'700

 Distance: 41 km

 Duration: 5 to 6h.

Day 3: From Sesto to Cortina d'Ampezzo

Your itinerary follows an old railroad line transformed into a bicycle path. The slope is gradual and easy to cycle on, the incredible remaining iron bridges cross deep canyons offering a view of beautiful mountains and glaciers. Followed by a climb on a dirt road to Prato Piazza and Mount Specie with magnificent views of Tre Cime di Lavaredo, before descending to Cortina d'Ampezzo.

 D+ : 1'600

 Distance: 59 km

 Duration: 4 to 6h.

Day 4: Cortina d'Ampezzo to Alta Badia

Today you will discover spectacular views of the Tofana di Rozes, the Cinque Torri (five towers) and Mount Lagazuoi. You will pass through a fairy tale setting around Malga Valparola, a rustic farmhouse where you can taste delicious dairy products made on site. The last section of the trail will give you a breathtaking view of the Marmolada glacier, the "Queen of the Dolomites" and its glaciers before the descent to Alta Badia.

 D+ : 2'100

 Distance : 49 km

 Duration : 4 to 6h.

Day 5: From Alta Badia to Alpe Siusi (Val Gardena)

In the morning you will take a natural path to Passo Gardena and admire the Sassolungo massif. Then it's a gentle descent on a path and the ascent to Passo Sella. Once at the top, you will enter a supernatural mineral landscape and continue towards the Comici Refuge and the Alpe di Siusi, the largest high altitude alpine plateau in Europe.

The Alpe is dominated by the Sciliar massif

 D+ : 1'900

 Distance : 44 km

 Duration : 3 to 6h.

Jour 6: Voyage retour

Départ après le petit déjeuner pour votre voyage retour.
